Dear friends,

There will be plenty in this edition of the Fareham Focus and elsewhere about Christmas activities and services in our church community so in this letter I will focus on Advent, the preparation time before we encounter Christmas itself.

In this strange season of Advent which plays about with time (Christ has come, is coming and will come again) we encounter the character of John the Baptist. The last of the prophets with the most important message of all. Across the gospels we get a picture of his life. His birth and infancy is presented in parallel with Jesus' birth and infancy. In adulthood he is the last prophet who fulfils earlier prophecy as he carries the Advent message 'Prepare the way of the Lord' and 'Repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is near'. He was a witness testifying to the light that was coming into the world. We are given details about his appearance and diet (a garment made of camel hair and insects!)

He baptises Jesus. He too has disciples but he recognises that Jesus is the more powerful One and so he knows when his ministry is fulfilled. He dies a grisly end at the instruction of Herod.

So what are we to make of him as a challenging Advent companion for us as we journey towards the birth of Christ? Firstly, it seems that John was not afraid to live differently. We're not given a lot of detail but we are told he spent time in the wilderness and by the River Jordan eating an unusual diet and Dressing in unusual clothes. We get that sense that this man of conviction was comfortable living on the edges of the society of his day.

Are we willing to enter the wilderness and live differently as part of our Advent devotion? Secondly, John preached good news but he didn't mince his words and he made it clear that good preparation for the coming of Jesus involved repentance; a close look at our lives so that we can have open hearts to receive Jesus when he comes. Thirdly and lastly, John knew his place. He knew his purpose and mission and he knew when it was completed. His job was to point towards the Christ whose arrival was imminent.

So how might our living throughout Advent do all of those things that John's life accomplished as a witness testifying to the light? How do we live differently because of what we believe? Are we people who are willing to examine ourselves and be open to change if we need to be? Do we seek to always point towards Christ, the One in whom we put all our trust and place all our hope.

May God bless each one of us at this special time of year.

With Love,

Claire

Good Friday Walk of Witness 2019

In 2019 it is Fareham Methodist Church's turn to lead the Good Friday Walk of Witness at the podium in West Street. To this end there will be a meeting on Thursday 10th January 2019 at 11a.m. at church for anyone who is interested in sharing ideas and being involved in the planning and delivery of this act of worship.

Many thanks, Claire and Edith (CTiF Rep)

A quick note from the Editor

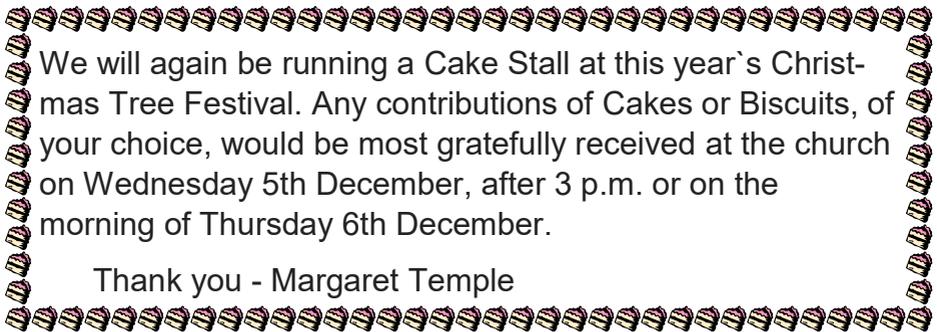

Firstly I'd like to apologise for the staggered release of last months Focus . We had a few issues with the photocopier. I hope in the end that everyone who wanted a Focus managed to get one. If, in future, anyone for any reason does not manage to get a copy of the Focus please do let me know and I will get one printed off for you.

Secondly I would like to wish all of our readers a very happy Christmas and a healthy new year.

Thank you Rox Garrett

I will again be running the Christmas and Gift Stall at the Christmas Tree Festival and would appreciate items to sell in order to cover the running costs of the church. These can be given to me at any time as I do have a certain amount of storage at home .

Thank you Shirley Henderson

We will again be running a Cake Stall at this year's Christmas Tree Festival. Any contributions of Cakes or Biscuits, of your choice, would be most gratefully received at the church on Wednesday 5th December, after 3 p.m. or on the morning of Thursday 6th December.

Thank you - Margaret Temple

Vestry Jottings

We look forward to a busy season as we celebrate Advent and Christmas.

The Christmas card box is now available. Please address the envelopes clearly with recipients full name as this makes the job of sorting so much easier. The last posting date will be at the Nativity service, the cards will be available from then.

The Church card is now available, please share these with friends and family inviting them to the services.

At the recent stewards' meeting we decided that when there is a retiring collection over the Christmas period we will donate to charity, the charity we have chosen to support is Action for Children. It was decided though that if there was a great need over the period we have the right to change and support this.

Looking to the New Year, we would like to support Rox in her idea to produce Focus on the final Sunday of a month so we are aware of future events the following month. We thank Rox for all her work producing the magazine and continue to support her.

May we as a stewards team wish everyone a peaceful Christmas and if you need us please ask.

The Stewards team.

Holiday@Home October 25th

The church buzzed with conversation and activity all day. It was our latest Holiday@Home. We didn't go far this time – only to the leafy lanes of Surrey. Our day was based on the film 'Quartet' with everyone having the opportunity to make wind chimes, decorate a cake with musical instruments, answer the 'Four' quiz or race horses in the Wickham Room! There was plenty of food – drinks and home-made biscuits on arrival, a two course lunch prepared by the Friday Lunch team and tea and cakes at the end of the afternoon after a sing song led by Jill (Race) and Bob on the drums. We even served ice creams during the film. I have received several letters since the event:

We enjoyed the variety of experiences as well as the food

Such a happy day with excellent food

The team worked so hard from the food through to the entertainment

What a lovely time we had and we cannot thank you enough for inviting us

So a big 'thank you' goes to all the team, who decorated and set up the church the day before, who prepared all the food, who masterminded the quiz and those who arranged the activities as well as Malcolm (G) organising the film show and Jill (R) and Bob for the music. If you want to know more about the horse racing, just ask me! Our only quiet time was when they were watching the film and we were able to eat our lunch.

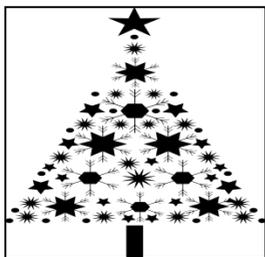

One lady told a team member that if she hadn't come to the event she wouldn't have spoken to anyone all day. There is obviously a need and so we are also thinking about having an afternoon tea once a month. The only disappointment on the day was that some people didn't turn up so next year we are thinking about having tickets.

Church and Community Group

For many years a small group has been making banners to enhance the worship area of our church. Apart from being visually attractive, their purpose is also to highlight the various seasons and aspects of Christian life, and, where known, to connect with a particular Sunday Service theme. Over the years, the group has diminished in number due to folk moving, having other commitments, or in some cases sadly dying. Anyone who enjoys needle work, craft work and so on, and would like to be involved would be very welcome to join us. It is, however, best for the group to be fairly small, but we would be happy for the group to increase from the present four! We usually meet on Thursday afternoons monthly. Our norm of late has been one new banner a year. Time is also spent checking and refreshing existing banners. More information can be given by

Grateful Thanks

Well, I'm home; not in full harness but getting there very slowly. I think that it will be a long haul before I'll be in any position to resume full activities all round. "Any road up", to use a bit of my native vernacular, Garry and I would like to thank everyone for their prayerful and practical support together with hospital visits which we appreciate take considerable time and effort from your busy schedules. We also thank everyone for the many cards of encouragement which both brightened up the Ward and cheered everyone

There will be no Fourth Friday Games Evening in December, we shall resume in January

CHRISTMAS SUNDAY LUNCH 16th December at 12.15 p.m. approx.

This is open to all members of the congregation and all family and friends. There is no set charge for the meal we just ask for donations to charity. If you would like to make a festive pudding of your choice and bring it along that would be very good – thank you.

The Menu

Starter: Soup or Prawn cocktail

Main Course: Roast turkey, sausages, Roast Potatoes, Selection of Vegetables.

Puddings: Variety

There will be a list in the vestibule for you to sign.
Please come along and enjoy a Sunday Lunch!

We have been a bit short of helpers lately so if you can help with serving or helping in the kitchen please sign the list. We really need two people to stay after the meal until about 2.30 p.m. to help Tony with the dishwasher. We would really appreciate your help.
Thank you J - ill Groom
